Souvenirs

Our fourth CAL honours the men serving in the New Zealand forces who were awarded the Victoria Cross, the Empires highest award for bravery.
The CAL was issued on the 24th July 2018, 100 years after Richard Travis won his Victoria Cross. Travis was the only man from the Otago Regiment to be awarded the Victoria Cross.
An order form is included with this newsletter.

Palmares

The Exhibition Palmares will be held on Saturday 10th November, in the Josephine Foyer at the Toitu Settlers Museum, starting at 6.30 p.m. Admission is by ticket at $65 per person. Please order your ticket on the order form at the end of this newsletter.

'Josephine' at work

'Josephine' retired, restored and on display

'Josephine', the Train, is the prominent feature in the Josephine Foyer. She was one of two Double Fairlie locomotives brought from England in 1872 and began her career on the Dunedin-Port Chalmers railway line. Her sister train was 'Rose'.
Josephine later worked at other locations throughout the country before returning to Otago to work on the construction of the 'Central Otago Railway Line'. She was retired from service in 1917 and sent to the scrap yard in 1920. She avoided the scrap heap and, since the latter half of the 1920s, has been on display at the Museum Foyer.

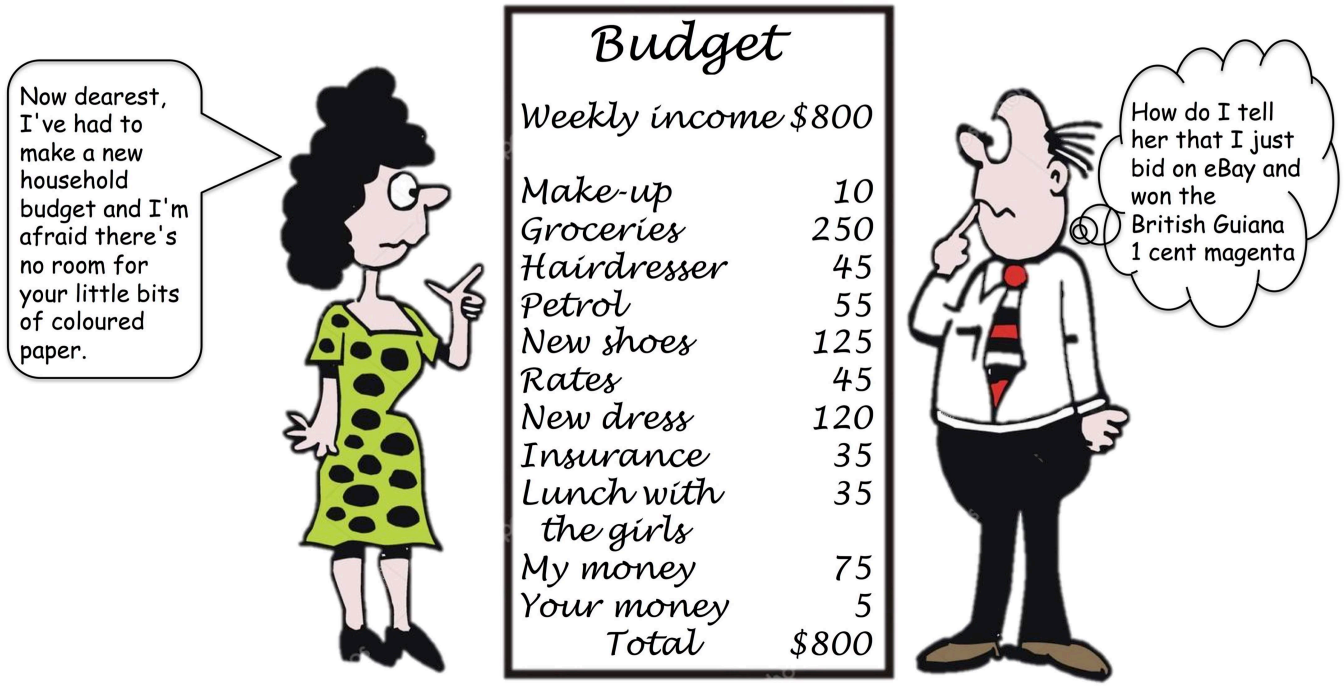
Robert Samuel Lecture

On Friday the 9th we will be holding the Chairmans welcome combined with the Robert Samuel Lecture. This is a free event starting at 7.30 p.m. Admission is by ticket as we need to know numbers attending for catering purposes. Please fill out the appropriate line on the order form at the end of this newsletter.

Bus Tour

What if your spouse is not a Philatelist?

Some of our visitors to Dunedin will be accompanied by spouses/partners/family who are not philatelists. To help cater for these people, we have arranged a guided bus tour round the major sights of Dunedin. This will be on Saturday afternoon, 10th November. The normal price for this is $35 for a 2 hour tour. We have arranged a special price of $30 per person for a 3 hour tour. Please go to the souvenir order page to purchase your tickets.



The Royal PS of NZ is hosting a "Royal" Breakfast on the Saturday 10th November. It will be held in the Law Courts Hotel, starting at 7am. All members of Royal Philatelic Societies and guests are welcome to purchase tickets of $25 each through the office of the Royal Philatelic Society of New Zealand.
