Category	Criteria	Comments
Introduction [Including title and plan]	Exhibits need an introduction and plan on the first page setting out what it is about and how it will be developed.
Treatment	The exhibit development (as set out on the first page) should be logical; easy to follow; have a beginning and end; and, be balanced and complete.
Knowledge	Knowledge relates to both the philatelic material and subject matter. It includes the specific items chosen and their relation to the subject. Text should complement the material and be correct, concise and not just descriptive.
Condition	Should be the best available for the subject.
Presentation	Should be clear, neat and balanced on each page and the exhibit as a whole.
